Come and Celebrate at our 25th Annual Fall Auction

The Last Chance Public Radio Association is celebrating its 29th year of bringing diverse public radio to the Helena area with its annual fundraising auction Saturday, November 23rd, 6 pm at the Staggering Ox, 400 Euclid Avenue in Helena.

The Last Chance Public Radio Association exists to ensure quality public radio listening opportunities in the Helena area. LCPRA provides volunteer and financial support to maintain translators on Hogback Mountain, broadcasting the signals of Yellowstone Public Radio (KEMC) from Billings, and KGLT – Alternative Public Radio from Bozeman. LCPRA originally provided translators for Montana Public Radio (KUFM) from Missoula, and continues to provide the station financial and volunteer support.

Again this fall, generous local and Montana merchants, artists, and listeners are donating items for our silent auction. Auction items include pottery, paintings, massage sessions, aromatherapy, indoor and outdoor recreation items, gift baskets, books, public radio shirts, hats, and mugs – and our usual dizzying array of gift certificates from local restaurants and establishments, professional services, and more. If you have something special you'd like to donate, contact Dawn North at 443-4284.

The WMDs will stir the evening's air with a lively medley of folk, old-time country blues, and...only they know – quality music not to be missed!

Enjoy tasty food and dessert from the Staggering Ox, Mediterranean Grill, Chili O'Brien's, and the Big Dipper, complementary with admission.

Local craft beers from Helena's Blackfoot River and Lewis & Clark Brewing Companies, and a variety of wines from the Pan Handler, will also be available at the no host bar; non-alcoholic beverages will also be available.

Come and help celebrate another exceptional year of public radio in Helena at the Last Chance Public Radio Association's 25th Annual Fall Auction, Saturday November 23rd, at the Staggering Ox.

Admission is $15 for individuals and $25 for couples.

Comings and Goings

This year, Last Chance Public Radio is excited to welcome Terry Chute to the board. Terry has been helping since July, and hosted our recent Annual Meeting (and BBQ!) at his beautiful home. He's ready for some auction fun!

Our treasurer – Gregg Wheeler, and secretary – Gretchen Bingman, plan to serve out their terms through the end of this year. We thank both for their collective years of help and commitment (and miss them already)!

Join us in thanking them all for their volunteer efforts to keep Helena a Public Radio Paradise!

Lend a Hand to Last Chance Public Radio

LCPR is always on the lookout for volunteers and potential board members interested in helping support our mission and goals. We're especially looking for help with finances/budget tracking, administrative and legal support, planning, outreach, and website development. What's your special interest?

We've also been updating our list of public radio friends – so please make sure we have your latest contact information and email address to keep you informed; we will not share your information.

Please consider volunteering to ensure quality public radio listening opportunities in the Helena area.
