Celebrating our 30th Year! at our Annual Fall Auction

The Last Chance Public Radio Association is celebrating its 30th year bringing public radio to the Helena area with its annual fundraising auction Saturday, November 22nd, 6 pm at the Staggering Ox, 400 Euclid Avenue in Helena.

The Last Chance Public Radio Association exists to ensure quality public radio listening in the Helena area. LCPRA has been working to bring public radio to Helena since 1984 and is keeping tuned-in to Helena's public radio future. We provide programming sponsorship and volunteer support to bring three great public radio stations to the Helena area - including KEMC (89.1 FM - Yellowstone Public Radio from Billings), KUFM (91.7 FM - Montana Public Radio from Missoula), and KGLT (98.1 FM - Alternative Public Radio from Bozeman).

Again this fall, generous local and Montana merchants, artists, and listeners are donating items for our silent auction. Auction items include pottery, paintings, massage sessions, indoor and outdoor recreation items, gift baskets, books, public radio shirts, hats, and mugs - and as usual, a dizzying array of gift certificates from local restaurants and establishments, professional services, and more. If you have something special you'd like to donate, contact Dawn North at 443-4284.

New to us this year - Balled In Burlap, from Helena and Missoula will provide the evening's musical entertainment.

Enjoy tasty food and dessert from the Staggering Ox, Mediterranean Grill, Benny's Bistro, Sweetgrass Bakery, and the Big Dipper, complimentary with admission.

Local craft beers from Helena's Blackfoot River and Lewis & Clark Brewing Companies and a variety of wines from the Pan Handler will be available at the no-host bar; non-alcoholic beverages also available.

Come and help celebrate another great year of diverse public radio in Helena at Last Chance Public Radio Association's 26th Annual Fall Auction, Saturday November 22nd, at the Staggering Ox.

Admission - $15 for individuals / $25 for couples / kids 17 & under free

New and Returning Board Members

Last Chance Public Radio is happy to welcome new board members Judi Johnston and Chino Suzuki, who've been with us since last December.

We were also fortunate to have several returning board members volunteer to help, including Dallas Miller, Gretchen Bingman, and Blair Krumm.

Terry Chute volunteered as our new secretary and Chino Suzuki, our new treasurer.

Join us in thanking them all for their volunteer efforts to keep Helena a Public Radio Paradise.

Lend a Hand to Last Chance Public Radio

LCPR is always on the lookout for volunteers and potential board members interested in helping support our mission and goals. We're especially looking for help with planning, outreach, legal and administrative support, website development... What's your special interest?

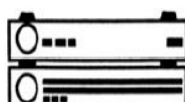

We're also updating our list of public radio friends and volunteers –please make sure we have your latest contact information and email address to keep you informed; we will not share your information.

Please consider volunteering to help ensure quality public radio listening in the Helena area.
